REPORT OF THE COMMERCE ASSOCIATION FOR THE ACADEMIC YEAR 2018 - 2019

The PG & Research Department of Commerce at Holy Cross College initiated its activities for the academic year 2018–2019 with a commitment to fostering holistic student development. The association, guided by Dr. S. Vasanthi, Ms. R. Marie Sheila, and Ms. M. Mary Peter Shirley, held its first meeting in June 2018 to elect office bearers, including Ms. Henil K. as President. The association's inauguration was held on 11th July, 2018, with Dr. K. V. Nithyananda, Associate Professor at IIM Tiruchirappalli, as the Chief Guest. His keynote emphasized the "4 P's" - Prayer, Planning, Passion, and Perseverance - as pillars of success. Subsequent meetings featured notable sessions. On 2nd August, 2018, Mr. Muruganathan, Managing Partner of Dimora Restaurants, spoke on entrepreneurship, emphasizing time management and continuous learning. A session by Mrs. Chitra Anantharaman of ICSI on 18th August highlighted the critical role of company secretaries in organizations. Workshops were conducted to enhance skills, such as entrepreneurial awareness on 19th September and Microsoft Excel training on 10th January, 2019. The department also hosted COMVAGANZA 2019, an inter-collegiate meet featuring competitions like Business Quiz, AdZap, and Corporate Walk, which was a grand success. The year concluded with an awareness program on ICWA (February 25) and a seminar on "Recent Trends in Banking and Finance" (March 4), featuring sessions on insolvency processes, banking policies, and artificial intelligence by esteemed professionals from IIM Trichy and other institutions. The association's activities underscored its commitment to academic and skill development, supported by dedicated staff and enthusiastic students.
