About Holy Cross College (Autonomous), Tiruchirappalli

Holy Cross College (Autonomous) Tiruchirappalli, affiliated with Bharathidasan University, stands as a distinguished Arts and Science College for Women in Tamil Nadu. It is found and directed by the Sisters of the Cross of Chavanod, Tiruchirappalli Province. Aligned with its mission, the college enrolls students from socially and economically disadvantaged backgrounds, irrespective of religion or caste. HCC with a century-long legacy, the institution provides a comprehensive array of programs, including 23 undergraduate, 21 postgraduate, 5 Post Graduate Diploma Programmes and 14 Ph.D. courses, all designed to cultivate globally proficient and environmentally conscious graduates. In acknowledgment of its contributions to women's education over the past century, the college was granted autonomous status by Bharathidasan University in 1987. The National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC) first accredited it in 1999 with 5 stars, followed by re-accreditations in 2005 and 2012, both with an A Grade, and most recently in 2020 with an A++ Grade and a CGPA of 3.75 on a 4.0 scale. Additionally, in October 2012, the UGC designated the college as a 'College with Potential for Excellence,' a status extended to 2022. The college had secured 40th rank from National Ranking Framework (NIRF) MHRD out 2746 participating Colleges in 2023.

About the Department of English

The Department of English, founded in 1923, offers B.A., M.A. and Ph.D. programs in English, driven by a vision to cultivate self-directed individuals who become catalysts for social change. Through a robust academic curriculum focused on knowledge and skill development, we aim to nurture morally, intellectually, aesthetically, and socially responsible, as well as professionally competent, literary scholars. Alongside fostering a profound understanding of language and literature and instilling an appreciation for literary richness, our programs shape students into proficient speakers of the English language.

About St. Xavier's College

St. Xavier's College, Kathmandu, Nepal, is an educational institution of higher learning established and managed by the Nepal Jesuit Society since 1988. St. Xavier's College runs undergraduate programs in nine streams and postgraduate programs in three streams under the Tribhuvan University, Nepal.

The college is a community of educators comprising its past and present students, parents, staff, management and collaborators dedicated to providing higher education in Nepal in the Jesuit tradition of integrating intellectual growth with physical, spiritual, emotional and social development through various studies and activities, thus becoming persons who relate positively and responsibly with the cosmos, self, others and the Transcendental, leading to all-inclusive transformation.

About the Department of Major Arts

The Department of Major Arts offers a Bachelor Degree in Major Arts which is a four-year program. The department offers three choices for the students to pursue their Bachelor of Arts - Major English and Major Social Work, Major English and Major Journalism and Mass Communication and Major Social Work and Major Psychology.

These programmes are designed to enhance students' foundational knowledge of English literature, critical tradition, and interpretive practices. They help inculcate in them a spirit of inquiry, broadening their horizon of understanding and sharpen their critical thinking, and an aesthetic taste for appreciating literature, besides improving their communicative, analytical, research, and writing skills.

About the FDP

The 21st-century classroom is a rapidly evolving space characterized by technological advancements, diverse student populations, and innovative pedagogical approaches. To stay ahead of the curve and meet the demands of modern education, faculty members must continually develop their skills and adapt their teaching methodologies. The Faculty Development Programme (FDP) titled "Pioneering Interactive Heuristics for the Contemporary Classroom: Revolutionizing 21st Century Education" aims to equip educators with the tools and strategies needed to create engaging and effective learning environments. The FDP emphasizes the importance of formative assessments and reflective teaching practices to continuously improve educational outcomes, fostering a dynamic and inclusive learning environment that prepares students for future challenges. Majoring in English unlock diverse career opportunities for English students, from content creation, publishing, and digital marketing to teaching, public relations, and corporate communication roles, where strong language skills and critical thinking are in high demand.

Objectives

- ❖ To equip educators with the latest educational technologies and digital tools to enhance their teaching methodologies
- ❖ To introduce faculty members to cutting-edge digital platforms, learning management systems, and emerging trends such as artificial intelligence and virtual reality in education
- ❖ To empower faculty learn new, interactive teaching methods that boost student involvement and critical thinking, creating an active and modern learning environment for today's education
