ABOUT THE COLLEGE

Holy Cross College (Autonomous), Tiruchirappalli, is a highly reputed arts and science college for women in the state of Tamil Nadu, situated in the heart of “The Rock City.” Holy Cross College has a unique history of academic excellence. It is a Catholic institution established in 1923 and has been at the forefront of women's education for 100 years, celebrating its historic achievements in all areas of excellence. It is one of the oldest colleges for women in South India and is affiliated with Bharathidasan University. The college is administered by the Congregation of the Sisters of the Cross of Chavanod, Tiruchirappalli Province. In recognition of its services to the cause of women's education, the college was granted Autonomous status in 1987 by Bharathidasan University. It was accredited by NAAC in 1999 with five stars and reaccredited in 2005 with an 'A' grade. With recognition from the UGC as a “College with Potential for Excellence” in 2011, the college was awarded an 'A' grade with a score of 3.5 on a 4-point scale by NAAC in 2012. In 2020, the college was awarded an A++ grade by NAAC with a CGPA of 3.75 on a 4-point scale.

FINE ARTS CLUB

The Fine Arts Club of Holy Cross College molds and shapes Holy Crossians to kindle their imagination, activate their creative abilities, and sculpt their artistic talents. It also lends a helping hand in contributing to the holistic development of the students by creating a cordial atmosphere that promotes healthy competition. Additionally, it serves as a solid platform for students to showcase their artistic talents in Fine Arts and demonstrate their abilities.

ZEN FIESTA'25

“Zen Fiesta'25” is an Intercollegiate cultural festival organized by the Fine Arts Club of Holy Cross College. The cultural festival will be a fantastic array of six artistic performances in the three fields of fine arts, namely Dance, Music and Theatre Arts. The main focus of this cultural festival will be to initiate and bring to the forefront the creative potential of each student, thereby instilling in the artistic performers the knowledge that they are winners at heart.
